

Invitation to seminar:

Addressing social inequality in cancer - involving vulnerable patients in research

Danish Research Center for Equality in Cancer (COMPAS) wishes to invite all interested parties to join us for a seminar to discuss the challenge of involving vulnerable patients in cancer research and thereby addressing social inequality in cancer. With contributions from researchers from Canada and Denmark we expect an exciting day with room for discussions to inform common challenges.

Date: 21 March 2022

Time: 09:30 - 15:00

Place: Danish Cancer Society Research Center
Strandboulevarden 49
2100 Copenhagen
Room 5.S.B+C

shutterstock.com - 618096680

The seminar is free of charge and lunch is provided!

Sign up by e-mail to Lissa Churchward: lissa@cancer.dk before 14 March to make sure there is a place and lunch for you!

Seminar programme: "Addressing social inequality in cancer - involving vulnerable patients in research"

09:30 - 09:35	Welcome and introduction to the day Susanne Oksbjerg Dalton, COMPAS & Danish Cancer Society Research Center
09:35 - 10:00	Prehabilitation and the vulnerable patient with colorectal cancer Rasmus Dahlin Bojesen, Center for Surgical Science, Zealand University Hospital
10:00 - 10:45	Involving vulnerable patients with cancer in surgical prehabilitation Daniel Santa Mina, University of Toronto, Canada
10:45 - 10:55	COFFEE BREAK
10:55 - 11:20	Multimorbidity - another major public health problem with significant impact on the patient Søren T. Skou, University of Southern Denmark and the Research Unit PROgrez, Næstved, Slagelse, Ringsted Hospitals
11:20 - 12:15	How to meet the extensive ethical demands regarding patient information when recruiting vulnerable patients with cancer Plenary discussion with representative from "Etisk Råd" (yet to be confirmed)
12:15 - 13:00	LUNCH
13:00 - 13:20	Inequality in access to treatment in haematological cancer: opportunities for change Jan Nørgaard, Department of Clinical Medicine, Department of Haematology, AUH
13:20 - 13:40	Screening and involving vulnerable patients with lung cancer Rikke Langballe, Danish Cancer Society Research Center
13:40 - 14:00	Prehabilitation focusing on lifestyle factors in patients with bladder cancer - Experiences from the STRONG studies Hanne Tønnessen, WHO-CC, Bispebjerg University Hospital
14:00 - 14:15	COFFEE BREAK
14:15 - 14:35	Screening for vulnerability in patients in palliative care Jens-Jakob Kjer Møller, REHPA
14:35 - 14:55	Recruitment, compliance and adherence to a high-intensity exercise intervention in women with breast cancer Gunn Ammitzbøll / Otto Linnert, COMPAS
14:55 - 15:00	Round-up and final remarks